David A. Moreno is the office managing partner in the firm's Fresno office, where he specializes in labor and employment and general education law. He has extensive experience with certificated and classified employee discipline, leaves, status, layoffs and discrimination claims. Mr. Moreno handles a variety of labor issues, including grievances, unfair practice charges and table negotiations through impasse and post-impasse proceedings. As co-chair of the Higher Education Practice Group, his practice includes advising school and community college districts on student matters, the Public Records Act and Brown Act issues.

A popular speaker, Mr. Moreno has presented workshops on a wide range of employment, student and governance topics, including employee use of employer technology and sexual harassment prevention training for members of the California School Boards Association.

Mr. Moreno is a member of the National School Boards Association's Council of School Attorneys and is a member of the Fresno County Bar Association. Mr. Moreno earned his Juris Doctor with distinction from San Joaquin College of Law and was admitted to the California State Bar in 2001. He holds a master's degree in English and bachelor's degrees in English and Political Science from California State University, Fresno.
