F3 Law/CSBA ELA Honored with Outstanding Achievement in Public Law Award

San Diego, CA – The California Lawyers Association (CLA) Public Law Section (PLS) announced that F3 Law/CSBA ELA legal team has been selected as the recipient of the 2024 Outstanding Achievement in Public Law Award. This prestigious award recognizes exceptional contributions to the field of public law.

F3 Law's work on the amicus curiae brief in the O'Connor-Ratcliff v. Garnier case was instrumental in shaping a new legal framework for school board members and their use of social media. The CLA PLS commended F3 Law for its dedication to public service and its significant impact on the legal landscape.

"We were honored to participate in this important brief and are pleased for the clarity it brings to school board members," Peter Fagen.

The F3 legal team that co-wrote the amicus brief with CSBA ELA comprised Peter Fagen, Chris Keeler, Gretchen Shipley, and Lynn Beekman.
