

News

Online Fundraising in Public Schools

April 2019

As online crowdfunding sites have become an increasingly popular fundraising method for public school districts, school administrators may have questions about how to best use these resources to benefit schools.

F3 Law recently partnered with the California City School Superintendents to create a tipsheet titled Fundraising in the Digital Age, which addresses frequently asked questions about crowdfunding and provides practical tips and recommended best practices to assist districts with navigating fundraising resources in the digital age.

Download Tipsheet

If you have any other questions about this emerging subject, please contact one of our six offices.

Related Services

-
- Governance & Leadership

Professionals

Sarah D. Polito

Partner

San Diego

760.304.6005

spolito@f3law.com