What can I solve for you?

I assist district administrators in managing the district's operations allowing them to focus on serving students, staff, and the community. My clients rely on me for guidance and solutions in areas such as business agreements, governance, Public Records Act requests, property and facilities matters, and other critical issues.

What's it like to work with me?

Working with me means having a reliable partner who is deeply invested in your success. I prioritize clear communication, ensuring you always know where things stand. My approach is collaborative, focusing on practical solutions that allow clients to manage district operations effectively. Whether it's navigating complex agreements or addressing immediate concerns, I am here to make my client's job easier so they can focus on what matters most.

The two most important days in your life are the day you are born and the day you find out why.

Overview

Daniel Zerga focuses on providing legal counsel to school districts, with an emphasis on business operations and governance. With a deep understanding of the unique challenges faced by educational institutions, Daniel offers strategic advice on a range of issues including business agreements, governance management, Public Records Act requests, and property and facilities matters. His experience helps district administrators navigate complex legal landscapes, allowing them to focus on their primary mission of serving students, staff, and the community.

Before joining F3, Daniel honed his skills at another prominent education law firm, where he gained valuable experience advising clients on similar matters. His work has consistently involved collaborating with district administrators to ensure compliance with state and federal regulations while addressing practical operational needs.

Clients appreciate Daniel's clear communication style, reliability, and commitment to finding solutions that work in the real world. His approach is both proactive and responsive, ensuring that potential issues are addressed before they become problems. Whether it's drafting policies, negotiating agreements, or providing day-to-day legal support, Daniel is a trusted advisor dedicated to helping school districts operate smoothly.

After School

Outside of work, I am all about exploring new places and trying local cuisines. At home, I love making my mom's incredible Peruvian recipes, including ceviche and anticucho (try it, trust me). When I am not cooking or traveling, you will find me listening to political podcasts or getting lost in fantasy adventure and sci-fi audiobooks like "Eragon" and "Red Rising." I am also a huge fan of video games and can watch Star Wars on repeat as if it might cease to exist at any moment!
