What can I solve for you?

I help clients manage legal issues related to property, contracts, and compliance, ensuring smooth operations and adherence to regulations.

What's it like to work with me?

I take pleasure in building meaningful relationships with clients and colleagues. Through attentive listening and commitment, we improve our service to meet the needs of school districts. My dedication lies in assisting clients with their current concerns and anticipating potential future challenges.

"The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education."

Overview

Paige helps school district clients develop strategies for a wide range of issues focusing on business, real estate and facilities. Paige demonstrates a unique ability to integrate corporate expertise with a deep-seated dedication to advancing social justice causes. This allows her to foster positive change within both legal and educational institutions community spheres.

Paige is committed to leveraging legal knowledge and skills to contribute meaningfully to organizations dedicated to social justice, education and equity initiatives.

Prior to joining F3, Paige practiced corporate law and represented technology and life science companies. Drawing from this experience, Paige brings a multifaceted perspective to her current role in education law.

Her proficiency in navigating complex legal frameworks, coupled with her ability to anticipate and address potential challenges, equips her with the tools necessary to effectively advocate for clients within the educational sphere.
