Our Mission and Vision

We work every day toward a vision where excellent education is a promise delivered to ALL students. Our mission is simple: to help you achieve yours. We don't just react to today's legal realities; we anticipate tomorrow's challenges.

Our Offices

Beginning with offices in San Diego, Los Angeles, and Oakland, this team of lawyers immediately captured the attention of education leaders. Rapid growth followed across the West with California offices in Sacramento, Fresno, and the Inland Empire, along with an office in Seattle. From there, growth continued into the Midwest with the addition of our Des Moines office, and most recently, through our merger with Kriha Boucek, the addition of offices in Chicago, Edwardsville and St. Louis. This growth enables us to deliver a fully integrated team that combines local insight with national perspective, wherever our clients are.

Let's Build a Future Together

In a constantly evolving educational landscape, you need a legal partner who not just understands, but lives and breathes education. At F3 Law, we do just that. Let us help you navigate the complexities of education law, ensuring you can focus on what's most important – educating the next generation.

Value We Provide

Unmatched Depth and Breadth

Our team is a powerhouse of shared perspective and experience among more than 170 lawyers and consultants, united by a singular focus on the education industry – and our collaborative approach ensures clients benefit from the full strength of our collective thinking. We work exclusively with education clients, giving us a deep understanding of the legal, regulatory, and operational challenges facing schools, districts, colleges, and universities today.

Whether providing strategic guidance to a single school district or advising a complex, multi-million-dollar university system, F3 Law brings together the right mix of legal minds for every engagement. Our collaborative approach ensures that clients benefit not just from individual experience, but from the collective insight of a team that lives and breathes education law – delivering practical, informed solutions that support long-term success.

Industry Leadership and Recognition

Our reputation precedes us. Leaders at the state and federal level often seek our consultation on critical legal matters and pending legislation. Notably, we've trained administrators and school board members on various federal, state, and local laws from Title IX regulations to immigration issues and are nationally recognized in Education Technology and Data Privacy, including the formation of the country's first Standard Privacy Agreement.
